

GOOD GOVERNANCE: THE ROLE OF THE BOARD TEAM AND INDIVIDUAL DIRECTORS IN PROVIDING OPTIMAL ORGANISATIONAL OVERSIGHT

Thursday 29th – Friday 30th October 2009 – Port of Spain, Trinidad

Introduction

As the demands on Directors continue to increase, the need for good governance and board effectiveness is becoming even more critical to organizational success. The need for Directors who understand the nuances and subtleties of boardroom deliberations and emerging governance best practices has never been more important. The need for Boards of Directors to function at the highest possible level is paramount.

Seminar Objective

The focus of this seminar will be to deliver the knowledge and understanding board members need in respect of critical governance success factors. These sessions will help Directors and the Boards on which they serve to deliver on their accountabilities to promote organizational strength and effectiveness through critical governance processes:

1. setting the organization's strategic priorities;
 2. monitoring the implementation of these priorities;
 3. providing management oversight; and,
 4. reporting to stakeholders on their stewardship.

Target

This seminar will be of particular interest to prospective and active board members who would value participating in a dynamic and interactive forum where critical board effectiveness issues are considered and deliberated. As much as participants will benefit from the expert instruction and facilitation, great value will also be derived from interaction with other attendees.

Directors wanting to take a fresh look at how they perform their oversight role and their participation on their Boards will benefit greatly from analysis of the structure and dynamics of good governance. For those without board experience, business or organizational leadership at a senior level is recommended.
